

List of Approved Ph.D. Guides Faculty of Humanities

Library and Information Sciences:

1.	Dr. Hindurao S. Waydande Ph.D. (Savitribai Phule Pune University, 2000), Professor Emeritus, Library and Information Science and University Librarian, 9769928936, drhindurao.w@somaiya.edu, http://www.lislinks.com/profile/DrHinduraoWaydande, Current Research Areas: Digital Library, Resource Sharing and Knowledge Management, web page design, Webology, User interfaces. LIS Education and Curriculum development with iSchool, LIS Standards, ICT applications in Libraries. Types of Libraries, Special Libraries, Health informatics, financial Management, Library services and Audit, Collection Development, Marketing of information, Information Literacy, Library Archives &amp; Museums (LAM), social media and Networking. Interdisciplinary subjects related to LIS Studies.
----	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------